

CONDITIONS RELATING TO NEED FOR ATTENDANCE

The person for whom attendance allowance is claimed must be:-

- (a) so severely disabled physically or mentally that he requires from another person in connection with his bodily functions, frequent attention throughout the day and prolonged or repeated attention during the night; or
- (b) so severely disabled physically or mentally that he requires continual supervision from another person in order to avoid substantial danger to himself or others.

INSURANCE OFFICER'S DECISION

Attendance allowance is not payable because the Attendance Allowance Board have decided that the conditions relating to the need for attendance are not satisfied (National Insurance (Old persons' and widows' pensions and attendance allowance) Act 1970 sec. 4(2))
